include In 2016, Providence St. Mary Foundation embarked on a Healthy Youth Initiative to build a healthier community for kids and their parents. In collaboration with local elementary schools, over 1.000 students received Sgord Wristbands that encourage healthy activities and movement more often. This was a partnership with the Walla Walla Public Schools, College Place Public Schools, Walla Walla Catholic Schools, Rogers Adventist School, YMCA and Whitman College A Concussion Summit brought national experts in brain trauma to Walla Walla to speak on safety in sports and concussion avoidance. Funded the certification in STAR (Survivorship in Training and Rehabilitation), a program that brings together a team of specialists to help cancer survivors increase strength and energy, alleviate pain, and improve the quality of their lives. Each new baby born at St. Mary leaves the hospital with a SleepSack, a wearable blanket that replaces loose blankets in the crib, encouraging safe sleeping at home. A Cancer

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Providence Health & Services maintains a conflict of interest policy that applies to board members and management of all Providence-related organizations. The purpose of the policy is to guide and direct those serving the Providence Health & Services' corporations and other legal entities so they can (1) fulfill their fiduciary responsibilities and exercise stewardship in ways that promote and protect the best interests of Providence and, (2) avoid situations that create a conflict, or the appearance of a conflict, between the interests of an individual associated with Providence and Providence. On an annual basis, each board member and management level employee must complete and submit an updated conflict of interest statement. Conflict of interest disclosures are reviewed by the System Integrity Department working in conjunction with the Department of Legal Affairs. If it is determined that an actual conflict exists, appropriate follow-up action is taken with the individual to rectify the conflict.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	It is Providence's intention to make financial information accessible and transparent. Alt hough the filing of Form 990 provides insight into how Providence achieves its Mission, de livers its programs and stewards its finances, deciphering the information directly from F orm 990 can be challenging. The following paragraphs provide further information about the process we use to determine compensation for top management, officers and key employees. Providence has a single fiduciary Board, with responsibility for financial oversight associated with fulfillment of the Providence Mission, developing system policies, protecting the assets entrusted to the organization and overseeing the strategic and operational affairs of Providence's legal entities. Providence also maintains a network of community minist ry boards with responsibility for quality of care oversight, community relations, advocacy and community needs assessments. Providence has a consistent compensation philosophy for all of its officers, including our senior executives. Salaries for senior executives are reviewed by the Providence St. Joseph Health. Committee and approved by the full Board of Di rectors, none of whom is a Providence employee. The Board retains an independent consultant each year to review salaries of those in the most significant leadership roles in the organization. Part of the consultant's role is to review an extensive array of compensation surveys of large, not-for-profit health care systems in the United States. Providence is one of the larger health systems in the country, and as such, the Board benchmarks executive compensation against other large, not-for-profit health systems whose revenue is similar to that of Providence. Additionally, Providence's labor market continues to spread across health care and into general industry. Because of this, Providence also takes into consideration general industry for-profit market data, where applicable. Base salaries for Provi dence executives are generally targeted to the median level
